Subject: Construction work on the pedestrian crossing Strawinskylaan

Dear resident, business owner or other interested party,

On Monday 9 November, we will start construction work on the pedestrian crossing on Strawinskylaan, near the intersection with Eduard van Beinumstraat. This letter will tell you what we are going to do, and how this will affect you.

What we are going to do

The Brittenpassage, the new passageway at Amsterdam Zuid station will opens its gates on 1 November. At the same time, the Minervapassage near Zuidplein will be closed for an extended period, to undergo an extensive renovation. From that time, passengers can only enter and leave Amsterdam Zuid station via the Brittenpassage. Likely, this will result in a significant increase in the number of pedestrians crossing Strawinskylaan near Eduard van Beinumstraat (see figure 1). The current pedestrian crossing is not safe enough and does not meet the relevant criteria. This is why we will modify the current crossing and turn it into a safe and spacious pedestrian crossing.

Activities and disruptions

The activities will start on Monday 9 November and will take until 17 December to complete. We will carry out the work in a few consecutive phases. To limit the disruption of public transport, we will execute some of the activities during the night. Overnight work will take place between 9 and 13 November, 9 and 11 December as well as 15 and 17 December. During the day, pedestrians on the south side of Strawinskylaan could experience some intermittent inconvenience, but access will always remain possible. Cars can keep using the road during the day, although the traffic lane will be narrowed at times. During the nights of 9 to 11 December and 15 to 17 December, Strawinskylaan will be closed to cars, because we must cut into and remove some of the asphalt. Traffic will be diverted, but trams and buses will be unaffected. The road will remain accessible for emergency services. The parking garage at 2Amsterdam will also remain accessible for hotel guests around the clock.

Working hours

We will work Monday to Friday between 7:00 am and 4:00 pm. When we work overnight, this will take place between 1:00 and 5:20 am. Construction traffic will avoid the morning and afternoon rush hours, meaning that the road will be free of trucks between 8:00 and 9:30 am and 4:30 and 6:00 pm.
